(6) File received as ordered.

1) Two petitions received from Messrs A.V. Nainjuna appa of Kuripakam and Yele Krishnappa of Devanhalli were sent to the Dy Comr for opinion vide the orders of the 2nd Member. Please see the correspondence in this file put up below. The Dy Comr reports that though these gentlemen are eligible for nomination on the Dt Bd, it was not possible to recommend their nomination to the Dt Bd in view of the very few seats open for nominations viz 7 and the large number of communities viz 14 whose claims had to be taken into consideration in proposing the nominations and the number of seats open by the communities in election.

17 The opinion of the Dy Comr was sought for preparing nos 1 to 5 and he was also asked to select one Jain christian for nomination and report for omission from the list the name of one of the gentlemen already proposed for nomination. The Dy Comr states that it is difficult to provide a seat for each of the various communities and several names have to be left out as only 7 have to be nominated. Please see the Dy Comr's D.O. placed in the file below.

18 Regarding the nomination of Mr. Arcot Ramiah B.A proposed by the Dy Comr a petition has been filed stating that he is heavily in debt and that he was short some money to the Economic Conference. This gentleman appointed as a member of the Legislative council and Vice-Presid of the Bangalore City Municipal Council. From enquiries in the Economic Development Branch office it appears that this gentleman has not borrowed any money from Govt but he has only stood surety for a part of the money lent to one of his relatives for whom he stands surety. Whether his indebtedness can stand in the way of his nomination to the Ld Bd is a point for consideration.

19	About the deputation of Mr. Razvi by the Central Mahomedan Association the Dy Comr has drawn attention to some confidential correspondence which is put up below.
20	Seek for orders as to whether the proposed selection of Mr. Razvi may be approved and what modifications have to be made in the nominations proposed by the Dy Comr. The Dy Comr has not yet reported which out of the several Muslim candidates mentioned may be nominated and in what place.
